

Kentisbury Primary School Newsletter

(Part of the West Exmoor Federation)

Date: 27th November 2009 Term: Autumn Newsletter Number: 6

Dear Parents/Carers

Thank you

Thank you to Joseph's Grandma who has made some lovely costumes for the jungle role-play area. Thank you also to those of you who have washed the dressing up clothes.

Anti-bullying day

Year 6 had an interesting day at Ilfracombe College last week exploring the theme of anti-bullying. They enjoyed taking part in activities with children from the learning community and watching some drama put on by the college students.

PTFA

Thank you to those of you who attended the PTFA meeting on Friday. Thank you also to the PTFA for putting on an art club. The children looked as though they were having great fun!

Theatre Alibi

We enjoyed another excellent performance by Theatre Alibi on Tuesday.

They inspired us with a mix of live acts, puppets and music.

Ofsted

As you are aware Ofsted visited us on Tuesday and Wednesday. I am delighted to be able to tell you that the feedback from the inspector has been extremely positive. The inspector said she really enjoyed her time in the school and would be talking about us to other schools in the future as she found our unique federation situation to be very interesting. The inspection report will be published in about 4 weeks time. We will invite you into school to give you each a copy of it as soon as we received it. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the staff of the school and the leadership team of the federation who put in so much hard work in the run up to the inspection. Thank you also to those of you who returned your parental questionnaires and to the children who did the school proud over the two days Mrs Chadwick was in.

PSA

The next Parent Support Advisor meeting with Bev Lee will be on 3rd December at 8:45.
